Alfred's is probably the most popular name in children's piano books and for good reason, they're informative and fun. I do think there are other books that might be more fun, but the technique is good in their books. The piano prep book is not really a songbook, it is more of a lesson book that teaches important dynamics.

There are many methods to help learn piano notes but this way is easy and children immediately engage with this animal memory game. They are so keen to memorise the order of the animals that they inadvertently learn the piano keys without realising it! The whole keyboard stretching out in front of them can be a bit overwhelming, so
